Pursuant to Article IV 4.a of the Constitution of Bosnia and Herzegovina, at the 69th session of the House of Representatives, held on 30 December 2009, and at the 40th session of the House of Peoples, held on 30 December 2009, the Parliamentary Assembly of Bosnia and Herzegovina adopted the following

LAW
ON THE AGENCY FOR THE PREVENTION OF CORRUPTION AND THE COORDINATION OF THE FIGHT AGAINST CORRUPTION

PART ONE – GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1
(Scope of the Law)

The present Law shall govern: the concept of corruption, the establishment and legal status of the Agency for the Prevention of Corruption and the Coordination of the Fight Against Corruption (hereinafter referred to as: the Agency), the method and forms of corruption prevention, the Agency’s operation principles, the scope of work and responsibilities of the Agency, the activities and tasks, method of management, cooperation and public relations.

Article 2
(Definition of corruption)

For the purpose of this Law, corruption shall mean any abuse of power entrusted to a public servant or a person holding a political position at the State, entity, cantonal levels and the level of Brcko District of Bosnia and Herzegovina, city or municipal levels, which may result in private gain. It may also include, in particular, any direct or indirect soliciting, offering, giving or taking of bribe or any other inappropriate gain or privilege or possibility thereof, which destroys the adequate exercise of any duty or conduct that are expected from the bribe recipient.

Article 3
(Definitions of terms)

Terms used in this Law shall have the following meaning:

(a) Public servants shall include:

1) any person holding a legislative, executive, administrative, prosecutorial or judicial office, whether appointed or elected, whether the office is permanent or temporary, remunerated or non-remunerated, regardless of the person’s rank;

2) any person holding a public office, including an office in a public authority or a public company or performing public service;
3) any other person defined within the legal system of Bosnia and Herzegovina as a public office holder, public servant or civil servant;

(b) Conflict of interest – means an instance in which elected officials, executive office holders, advisors and/or other officials with public authorizations have private interests that affect or may affect legality, transparency, objectivity and impartiality in the performance of public duties, or where private interests are prejudicial or may be prejudicial for public interests.

(c) Public property – means movable and immovable property, including also public funds allocated to political parties by the State, entities, cantons, Brcko District of Bosnia and Herzegovina, cities or municipalities.

(d) Budget – means the Budget of the Institutions of Bosnia and Herzegovina and the International Obligations of Bosnia and Herzegovina

PART TWO – ESTABLISHMENT OF THE AGENCY

CHAPTER ONE - RESPONSIBILITIES AND PRINCIPLES OF THE AGENCY’S OPERATION

Article 4
( Establishment of the Agency)

This Law shall establish the Agency for the Prevention of Corruption and the Coordination of the Fight Against Corruption in order to prevent the impact of corruption on the development of democracy and respect for the fundamental human rights and freedoms, as well as the impact undermining the economic development of Bosnia and Herzegovina, and all other forms of impact on social values, as well as for coordination of the fight against corruption.

Article 5
(Purposes of the Agency’s establishment)

(1) The Agency shall be established for the following purposes:

a) to identify and eliminate any causes of corruption;
b) to deter persons from committing corruption-related criminal acts;
c) to provide and promote a legal framework for corruption prevention;
d) to encourage the civil society participation in preventing corruption;
e) to raise public awareness and create an attitude of intolerance against corruption;
f) to educate and raise awareness of the society about the causes and effects of corruption impact and about active participation in its prevention;
g) to promote transparent and accountable operation of authorities and institutions in Bosnia and Herzegovina.
Article 6
(Status of the Agency)

(1) The Agency shall be an independent and autonomous administrative organization, reporting about its operation to the Parliamentary Assembly of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

(2) The funds required for the Agency’s operation shall be provided from the Budget.

(3) The Agency’s head office shall be identified by the Council of Ministers of Bosnia and Herzegovina within the period of three (3) months following the day of entry into force of this Law.

Article 7
(Anticorruption principles)

All public service institutions in Bosnia and Herzegovina shall base their operations on the following anticorruption principles:

a) Equal treatment and non-discrimination. Everyone is entitled to equal access in the performance of an activity of public interest as well as to equal treatment by public servants, free from corruption.

b) Prohibition of corrupt behavior. When carrying out their duties, public servants may not seek or accept any illicit gain for the performance of their duties.

c) Transparency and public control. Performance of all public functions will be transparent and subject to public scrutiny.

d) Protection provided in cases of “corruption reporting”. No person shall be punished nor in any way suffer any consequences for reporting, in good faith, what is considered by him or her an act of corruption or irregularities in the prescribed procedures. Where a person that has reported any potentially corrupt behavior or improper conduct observed in the performance of public services, suffers the consequences of such reporting, the person shall be entitled to an indemnity or compensation as determined through a special procedure with the competent authority, whereon the Agency will enact a separate regulation.

Article 8
(Principles of the Agency’s operation)

(1) Within the scope of its operations, the Agency shall comply with the following anti-corruption principles:
a) Legality – the corruption prevention measures shall be implemented in compliance with the Constitution and laws of Bosnia and Herzegovina by ensuring respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms.
