

Annex – Questionnaire (Macao S.A.R., China - CCAC / Good Practices – 10)

Measures taken to implement the Convention and the commitments contained in the UNGASS political declaration, as well as good practices and progress made in the use of international cooperation mechanisms under the Convention<sup>1</sup>

Country	The People’s Republic of China
Implementing authority/authorities	Macao Special Administrative Region Commission Against Corruption (CCAC)
Corresponding paragraph(s) of the UNGASS political declaration and/or article(s) of the Convention	UNGASS political declaration Paragraph 28 Strengthening efforts to build the capacity of law enforcement and judicial authorities for the successful investigation, prosecution and adjudication of corruption and corruption-related offences, including through training.
Title of initiative	Training for CCAC Staff
Keywords of initiative	CCAC staff training
Short summary of initiative (please indicate the start date/duration if relevant)	Despite the raging pandemic all over the world, the CCAC made the (virtual) participation of its staff in several professional training workshops/seminars in 2021.
Detailed description of initiative	In 2021, the CCAC staff participated in several seminars, workshops and trainings organised by international organisations in order to continuously strengthen the knowledge of its profession and enhance the level of work. Such organisations included: the International Ombudsman Institute (IOI), the International Association of Anti-Corruption Authorities (IAACA), the World Bank, the Asia Pacific Group on Money Laundering (APG), the Asian Development Bank (ADB) and the Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD). At an internal level, the CCAC proactively arranged internal trainings for its staff. The seminar on “Knowledge of Anti-Money Laundering” was held in 2021. The CCAC invited a local professional institution to carry out a training on the knowledge of anti-money laundering for its staff so as to familiarise them with the trend and development of money laundering in the area of international finance in a timely manner and persistently enhance the level of

<sup>1</sup> Please use one form per initiative described

	operational performance capacities and enforcement levels of its staff. Furthermore, due to the adjustment of the thresholds related to the public procurement procedures legislation of the Macao SAR Government, the CCAC had invited a professional instructor to conduct a course on the “Regime of Expenditure of Construction Works and Acquisition of Goods and Services (Public Procurement) between May and June. The instructor enabled the staff to have a more comprehensive and deeper understanding of the regime of the public procurement that is currently in force in Macao so as to facilitate the staff to accurately apply and interpret the legal regime for achieving the purpose of acting and supervision according to the law.
Lessons learned in implementing the initiative	---
Challenges encountered in implementing the initiative	---
Link to more information	---