

Questionnaire: Measures taken to implement the Convention and the commitments contained in the UNGASS political declaration, as well as good practices and progress made in the use of international cooperation mechanisms under the Convention

Country	Thailand
Implementing authority	Office of the National Anti-Corruption Commission (Office of the NACC)
Corresponding paragraph(s) of the UNGASS political declaration and/or article(s) of the Convention	Paragraph 4 and 32 of the PD Article 1, 5, 6, 43, 46, and 48 of the Convention
Title of initiative	NACC's international cooperation
Keywords of initiative	Foreign Affairs for Prevention and Suppression of Corruption
Short summary of initiative	Under Organic Act on Anti-Corruption B.E. 2561 (2018), the NACC is an independent organ and performs duties and functions as a national authority in undertaking government oversight and anti-corruption works, including relevant international cooperation.
Detailed description of initiative	The Organic Act regulates duties and powers of the NACC related to foreign affairs, as follows: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Be the competent authority for international cooperation under international obligations and agreements in anti-corruption; 2. Execute in accordance with the request for assistance from foreign countries in corruption cases, submitted by the central authority (the Attorney General) under the law on mutual legal assistance, to proceed, or to consider providing assistance to a foreign country in a corruption case which is not a request for assistance under the law on mutual legal assistance in criminal matters. 3. When it appears to the NACC, regardless of allegation, that a foreign public official, official of public international organisation or associated person commits an offence related to bribery, the NACC may consider submitting the matter to the foreign authority having the duties and power to undertake the case under the law of such country. In this regard, international cooperation shall be proceeded under the law on such matter. 4. Upon a request for assistance from a foreign country under the law on mutual legal assistance in criminal matters to proceed against a foreign public official, official of a public international organization, or any person on the grounds that an offence was committed related to bribery or the justice obstruction, the NACC shall have the powers to conduct inquiry and make a decision or to perform any other act as requested

Lessons learned in implementing the initiative	N/A
Challenges encountered in implementing the initiative	N/A
Link to more information	https://www.nacc.go.th/tacc/