Detailed description of initiative	The HKSAR Government has been making on-going efforts in collaboration with ICAC to enhance integrity promotion and training for civil servants. In particular - (a) the HKSAR Government has incorporated integrity training as part of its regular training programmes for civil servants at different levels. Workshops and seminars are also held from time to time to enhance the understanding of civil servants on anti-corruption laws and raise their alertness to corruption, conflict of interest and integrity issues. (b) under the Ethical Leadership Programme launched by CSB and ICAC, each bureau / department has designated a senior directorate officer as an Ethics Officer to take charge of integrity-related promotion and training activities and map out the strategy and work plan that suit its own needs and priorities. To better enable these officers to spread across the message, the HKSAR Government runs sessions for them on special topics (e.g. a thematic webinar in November 2020 on “government procurement”).

¹ Please use one form per initiative described

	(c) publications and promotional materials such as videos are produced by CSB and ICAC to better disseminate the message within the civil service.
