Title of initiative	Online training dedicated to Commission to investigate allegations of bribery or corruption (CIABOC) from Sri Lanka
Keywords of initiative	preventive tools, financial investigations, asset recovery
Short summary of initiative (please indicate the start date/duration if relevant)	The initiative consists in offering professional training for 200 employees in the field of investigating corruption crimes, as well as in the field of corruption prevention, with an emphasis on increasing integrity.
Detailed description of initiative	As a response to the request of CIABOC, RO built a customized training, in order to meet the needs expressed. The initiative materialized in two 5-day online trainings with 50 employees present in each session, which took place between 7-11 November 2022 and 22 – 26 may 2023. RO presented the institutional architecture of the mechanism for preventing and fighting corruption in RO, going deeper into more specific matters, as following: special methods and techniques of investigation on corruption, asset recovery aspects, digital forensic techniques used when investigating corruption offences and financial investigations and data analysis. As follow-up, RO asked for feedback on the effectiveness of the training or other subjects that could be of interest, receiving positive reply and a new request to continue this type of collaboration, in order to train a bigger number of employees.
Lessons learned in implementing the initiative	The initiative is still ongoing
Challenges encountered in implementing the initiative	The online environment does not facilitate an optimal exchange of information.

Title of initiative	Strengthening the whistleblowers' protection legislation
Keywords of initiative	Update, strengthen, whistleblower, protection
Short summary of initiative (please indicate the start date/duration if relevant)	Romania adopted Law no. 361/2022 regarding the protection of public interest whistleblowers, in December 2022, which transposes into the national legislation the EU Directive 2019/1937 on the protection of persons who report breaches of Union law.
Detailed description of initiative	Through the newly adopted legislation (Law no. 361/2022), the National Integrity Agency (hereinafter the Agency / NIA) has been designated as an external reporting channel - competent authority to receive reports on violations of the law, defined by art. 3 of the normative act as oral or written communications relating to facts that consist of an action or inaction that constitutes non-compliance with the legal provisions. Moreover, the Agency operationalized, on the 6th of February 2023, the newly established structure (Whistleblower Directorate) in order to implement an effective whistleblowing management system. Thus, the Agency created a dedicated platform through which whistleblowers can submit their reports, either nominally or anonymously. Both private and public sectors are covered by the abovementioned law. The new law also provides several whistleblower protection measures: 1. Prohibition of retaliation;
